

When it comes to code compliance,
there is only one report, widely accepted...
coast to coast.

Do your decking & railing products
fall between the Cracks?

"I accept one report only"

VEKA Innovations, a proud member of the International Code Council, has the Guard Rail and Decking products to keep you in compliance.

Contact us today to learn how you can be a part of the most widely accepted building code criteria available today.
